

(To apply to Orders for purchase of Goods or Services where the service provided DOES NOT INCLUDE INSTALLATION or other work on site)

1 DEFINITIONS

- (i) "The Company" means JCW Energy Services Limited its successors and assigns.
- (ii) "Seller" means the name to which The Company's order is addressed.
- (iii) "Contract" means The Company's order and the Seller's acceptance thereof of these Terms and Conditions and any documents referred to therein.
- (iv) "Order" means The Company's Purchase Order and any amendment thereto.
- (v) "Goods" means goods material equipment supplied by the Seller in accordance with the contract.

2 EXISTENCE AND SCOPE OF CONTRACT

2.1 These terms and conditions together with The Company's Purchase Order set out all the rights and obligations of the parties each to the other and no other terms or conditions shall be implied save to the extent that such terms and conditions are implied by statute.

2.2 Unless otherwise expressly agreed, delivery of Goods or commencement of performance of the contract shall signify acceptance of these terms and condition. For the avoidance of doubt The Company does not intend to enter into contract on any terms and conditions other than those set out herein.

2.3 The Company reserves the right to add to, amend or vary the conditions as herein set out by appending such additions, variations or modifications to the order or in any written correspondence between the parties. No variation or modification of these conditions by the Seller shall be effective unless expressly agreed in writing by The Company.

3 DELIVERY AND TIME

3.1 Time is of the essence of the Contract. Delivery of Goods shall be made in the quantities in the manner and the time stipulated in the order or if not stipulated then promptly within a reasonable time. Where it is agreed that there shall be phased delivery of Goods such phased delivery shall be made at the rates and times stipulated in the order or other written instructions issued from time to time pursuant to the order time being of the essence. The Company shall be entitled to amend the date or rate of delivery upon reasonable prior notice in writing time being of the essence in respect of such amended date, if any. In the event of the Seller failing to comply with the date or rate of delivery including any amendment thereof The Company shall have the right (without prejudice to any other right or remedy of The Company) to cancel the order and to buy elsewhere Goods the subject thereof and to debit the Seller with any additional costs or expenses arising in relation thereto. Any extension of time by agreement or otherwise or the acceptance of the Goods or the provisions of services in whole or in part after the stipulated date or any amended date for delivery of performance shall not operate as a waiver of rights accruing to The Company from failure to meet the stipulate date or amended date for delivery. Where part delivery only has been made within the time specified or within a reasonable time as aforesaid, then The Company shall be entitled to return to the Seller at the Seller's risk and expense any of the Goods already delivered but which cannot be effectively and commercially used and to recover from the Seller any monies paid to The Company in respect of such Goods.

3.2 In the event of The Company's processes for the purposes of which the order is placed being prevented, hindered, interrupted, delayed, impeded, or otherwise restricted any cause whatsoever beyond The Company's control, The Company shall be at liberty to defer the date for delivery or to modify or cancel the order.

3.3 If for any other reason whatsoever The Company wishes to modify or cancel the order it shall be entitled to do so subject to payment for any Goods partially manufactured or services partially performed. In relation to the raw materials irrevocably allocated to the order The Company shall upon cancellation negotiate with the Seller as to alternative uses, disposal in the market or taking over commitment prices.

3.4 Save as herein provided The Company shall be under no liability by reason of any deferment, modification, or cancellation of the order and in any event The Company shall not be liable for any claim by the Seller unless made in writing within 14 days from such deferment, modification or cancellation.

3.5 If the Seller delivers to The Company Goods in excess of the quantities that it contracted to sell, The Company may accept the Goods included in the contract and reject the rest or it may reject the whole. Any quantities rejected shall be and remain at the Seller's risk and returnable at the Seller's expense. If The Company, by notice in writing, elects to accept the whole of the Goods or materials so delivered, it shall pay for them at the contract rate.

3.6 If any consignment of a specified number of identical parts any single part does not conform to the contract The Company shall be entitled to reject the entire consignment, and where the consignments forms part of a contract for delivery by instalments The Company shall be entitled (without prejudice to any other of its rights hereunder) to terminate the whole contract and reject all further instalments.

4 RISK AND PROPERTY IN GOODS

4.1 The risk in the Goods or materials shall pass to The Company:

(a) Where the Goods are supplied under the contract in connection with works or services to be performed on land or premises of The Company, upon completion of the entire works or services and acceptance of the Goods or materials by The Company in accordance with the contract. Until such time the Goods shall be and remain at the sole risk and responsibility of the Seller and shall not be removed from such land or premises without The Company's express written consent.

(b) Where Goods are supplied under the contract other than in connection with works or services as aforesaid, upon actual delivery (by whatever means) thereof at the place specified in the order and acceptance thereof by The Company after it has had a reasonable opportunity to inspect same.

4.2 The property in the Goods shall pass to The Company in accordance with the provisions of the Sale of Goods Act 1979, and the Supply of Goods and Services Act 1982 and 1994 (as amended) and any reservation of title or purported reservation of title by the Seller shall be of no effect.

5 DEFECTIVE GOODS

5.1 Notwithstanding part performance by the Seller or where The Company has accepted the Goods or part thereof, Goods which are defective shall, at the request of The Company and without prejudice to its other rights, be replaced free of all costs to The Company, fair wear and tear excepted. Defective Goods shall be retained by The Company its distributors or agents for a period of 28 days after notification by The Company to the Seller that such Goods or materials are defective. Goods retained by The Company its distributors or agents which are defective will be forwarded to the Seller upon the Seller's written request and upon payment advance by the Seller of the costs of carriage insurance and freight. If after 28 days no such request has been made by the Seller and in the case of exported Goods no payment in respect of the costs of carriage and insurance has been received, the Seller shall immediately become liable to indemnify The Company fully in respect of all costs claims and charges in respect of such Goods.

6 PRICE

6.1 The Seller shall not be entitled to any increase in the contract price without The Company's express consent in writing, nor will The Company accept any increase in the contract price arising from changes in the rate of exchange of foreign currencies. Any invoice price not in accordance with this condition shall be invalid and ineffective and no payment shall be due in respect thereof.

6.2 Prices specified in the order are deemed to include shipping, carriage, insurance, labour, and any other item whatsoever. No additional charges will be accepted for boxes, packages, crates, pallets, or containers of any description whatsoever but if requested they will be returned to the Seller at the Seller's risk and expense unless specifically stated otherwise in the order.

6.3 The Company reserves the right to deduct from any monies due or becoming due to the Seller any monies due to The Company or any other company in the same group as The Company under this or any other contract.

7 ADVICE NOTES, INVOICES AND PAYMENTS

7.1 The Seller undertakes to render advice notes showing The Company's order number in full upon delivery of Goods and materials at the place for delivery specified in the order.

7.2 The Seller undertakes to render properly prepared invoices quoting The Company's order number in full within 14 days of delivery, separate invoices being sent in respect of each separate order number. Invoices, statements of account and all other communications in connection therewith are to be sent to The Company's Accounts Department at the address stated on the order. The Company shall pay all invoices not less than 60 days after receipt.

7.3 The Seller is responsible for payment of all taxes, duties, fees or similar in relation to the entire Works or services in accordance with the Contract, all of which are deemed to be included in the Prices of the Order.

8 SAFETY AND QUALITY

8.1 All Goods supplied shall be of best quality and shall meet the governing specification as to description, quality and standards and shall be supplied subject to The Company's express approval in writing.

8.2 The Seller accepts the specification for sampling procedures contained in the relevant British Standard, furthermore, The Company will be entitled to be admitted to the Seller's premises at all reasonable times to inspect and test the Goods obtained for the purpose of the contract during manufacture, processing or storage and where the Goods do not comply with the order, The Company shall inform the Seller in writing and the Seller shall take such steps as may be necessary to ensure such compliance. The Company's customer shall be afforded the right to visit the Seller's premises, by prior arrangement, to verify that manufacture of Goods to be used in the production of equipment to his order conforms to specification. The Company also requires the option for first off inspection and batch inspection before painting where appropriate. No liability will be accepted by The Company for any work carried out or any services provided prior to the approval of such samples as aforesaid. The exercise by The Company of any of its rights under this clause shall be without prejudice to its rights under any other term of this contract.

8.3 The Company reserves the right to reject any Goods which do not conform to the description, quality or standards as specified in any order or which are defective or faulty.

8.4 The Seller warrants that the design, construction and quality of the Goods are fit for any purpose made known by The Company to the Seller or any purpose for which the goods or services could reasonably be used and comply in all respects with all relevant requirements of any Statute, Statutory Rule or Order, or
